

GIRL OF BPS GOVT. MEDICAL COLLEGE FOR WOMEN, KHANPUR KALAN TOP IN THE UNIVERSITY IN FIRST PROF. EXAMINATION IN ALL THE MEDICAL COLLEGES AFFILIATED WITH UNIVERSITY OF HEALTH SCIENCES HARYANA.

University of Health Sciences, Rohtak on 4.9.2015 (Friday) declared the result of First Professional MBBS Annual Examination for the Batch 2014-15. BPS Govt. Medical College for Women, Khanpur Kalan beat all the Medical Colleges (Government and Private) affiliated with University of health Sciences, Rohtak running in the State, as Miss Neha top in the University examination by securing 76 % marks, which is a marvellous achievement of the Institute. Top 5 positions were from this institute among all the Government Medical Colleges running in the state. Overall pass percentage of BPSGMC is 96.03% out of 101 students, PGIMS Rohtak is 86.06% out of 201 students, MAMC Agroha is 76% out of 50 students, and SHKGMC Mewat is 74.75% out of 103 students, who appeared for the examination. 8.91% students of the Institute secured more than 70% marks as compared to 0.49 % in PGIMS, Rohtak. 64.35% students of the BPS Govt. Medical College for Women, 42.78 % students of PGIMS, Rohtak, 42% students of MAMC, Agroha and 25.24 % students of Sheed Hasan Khan Government Medical College, Mewat secured more than 60% marks.

On this occasion, Dr. R.C. Siwach, Director, BPS Govt. Medical College for Women, Khanpur Kalan congratulated its faculty, involved in teaching of First year MBBS students, for their keen interest and their efforts put in to take the Institute to the peak of excellence in the State of Haryana. On this occasion, The Director said that our aim is not only to beat the Medical Colleges of the State of Haryana, the time is not too far when BPS Govt. Medical College for Women, Khanpur Kalan will outshine all the Government Medical Colleges of the country with the hard work of the faculty members as well as students in the field of Medical Education, patient care and research.

